RTI Application for Scholarship Delay 1

RTI Application for Scholarship Delay

SampleRTI

Large number of queries are raised regarding inordinate delay in sanction of Scholarship. Now that the process is online, but the authorities both at college level as well as at Nodal Agency level fail to update the details of the student such as marks scored in previous examination and/or other mandatory information, causing hold up or abnormal delay. In such situation, it is necessary to submit a representation narrating the issues to the concerned officer at State Education Department or Nodal Agency for Scholarships as well as to the concerned University /college with a request to grant scholarship immediately. If no action is taken within 30 days' time, please file RTI application before the concerned Public Information Officer of Education Department or Nodal Agency for Scholarships as also University (*separately) and seek following information:
